How does it feel to have been named Integrated Risk Management Firm of the Year and to what do you most owe this success?

We are very proud of this award, as it reflects the appreciation and satisfaction of our clients with our professional services.

How important do you believe awards like this to be, both to individual businesses like Dr. Bellof Consulting and to your wider industry?

We are in constant competition with hundreds or thousands of consulting firms around the globe, and so awards like this are very important to distinguish oneself as a reliable professional who has a proven ability to create value for our clients' businesses.

Tell us about Dr. Bellof Consulting's overriding philosophy when it comes to your clients. What do you see as the most relevant and vital areas to focus on when it comes to providing the best possible service?

Each consulting service is based on a preceding assessment of the client's needs, forming the foundation for concepts that lead to tailor-made solutions for the client's problems.

What should clients be looking for when seeking a risk management firm and how does Dr. Bellof Consulting go about meeting these requirements?

Clients should be looking for support that applies professional project management to guarantee permanent transparency, measurable results and comprehensive monitoring throughout all project steps. Our experience and the application of well-established methodology and approved tools will ensure fast project implementation, reduced efforts and significant cost savings. We offer a one-stop shop, starting from project planning up to the establishment of all relevant documentation.

Tell us about the culture within Dr. Bellof Consulting and the things you do to maintain and develop it. How does it influence your interactions with and results achieved for your clients?

The close involvement of our clients in each individual phase of the consulting project is important to us – it means we can ensure that all results are readily accepted and will be smoothly implemented in the line functions involved.

What sets Dr. Bellof Consulting apart from your competitors and peers and how do you use this differentiation to your advantage?

We know our clients' businesses and we speak their language. With more than 25 years of professional experience in pharmaceutical industry, we have profound knowledge of the trade and know-how in the production of pharmaceutical drugs and active pharmaceutical ingredients and broad expertise of operational risk management, as well as in-depth knowledge of health, safety and environment standards in the pharmaceutical industry and much experience in HSE and third party auditing.
